

GDPU
Weekend
2010

Interested in getting out and taking photographs?

Like to visit spectacular locations?

Wishing to improve your photography?

Happy to meet new friends

Just want to get away from it all for a few days?

Then come along to a GDPU weekend! Simply one of the best value for money breaks you can get!

Each weekend break is for a three nights stay, starting on the Friday evening, departing on the Monday morning.

The GDPU Spring weekend break for 2010 has been arranged for Aviemore at Badaguish Outdoor Centre lodges, this replacing the usual SYHA accommodation.

The lodges provide fully equipped, luxury self catering accommodation, each sleeping up to 10 people. Each lodge has 4 twin bedrooms, (2 en-suite shower rooms, 1 large shower room which the other 2 rooms share. There are also 2 ground floor single rooms sharing a shower room.

What you need to bring: Essentially everything you would normally bring when self catering, towels, food, drink etc.

Provided; tea towels, toilet rolls, matches, washing up liquid, washing up brush/sponge, Non-feather/down pillows (and pillowcases), duvets (with covers) and fitted bottom sheets.

Set amidst the forest, halfway between Aviemore and the Cairngorm Mountains, you really couldn't ask for more idyllic surroundings to base our photographic weekend!

A deposit of £20pp secures your place, the balance may be paid in full before March 2010, or over 3 installments.

When;

Friday 9 April to Monday 12 April 2010

Places available;

20 or 30 (2 / 3 lodges)

Cost;

£70 pp for GDPU club members,
£80 pp non members.
